WEDDING CAKE

by DelRey

A wedding cake is an integral part of any wedding. It is the centerpiece of the reception and a symbol of the newlyweds' union.

The wedding cake is often a work of art, carefully crafted by a skilled pastry chef to reflect the couple's taste and style.

Today, wedding cakes come in a variety of shapes, sizes, and flavors. Some couples choose a classic tiered cake, while others opt for more modern designs.

The cake can be decorated with flowers, intricate piping, or personalized cake toppers that reflect the couple's interests or hobbies.
